About This Book

Although the title page of this index shows Anglican Marriages of Labrador this work has compiled many and not necessarily all of such unions that occurred within Labrador during the time period concerned. The online digital transcriptions that are available at familysearch.org and Ancestry.ca are part of the civil collection of Newfoundland and Labrador pre-1891 marriage schedules that were made in the 20th century, copied from parish registers themselves. The original church registers (some no longer existing) rest with the Anglican Church of Canada and this latter should be consulted for primary information. The Provincial Archives of Newfoundland could be consulted as well.

The Marriages

The first, last and middle names (if they were written down) are included for bride and groom. The date the marriage ceremony was performed appears herein. The ‘place’ is the locality where the marriage ceremony was held. All places were in the spiritual jurisdiction or parish of Battle Harbour, Labrador. Creed refers to religion and all entries are C of E=Church of England or Anglican.
